It's that time of year again! When fortune favors the one who can properly guess where a cow will poop!

In this video the cameras of Shuta Multimedia are in Throop, PA, for the annual Cow Flop to benefit the Throop Booster Little League!

In addition to great food, games and music (This year by Dani-elle and the Fake Uncle Jack Duo), a parade and fireworks, there is a grand prize of $5000 for whoever has the the ticket that corresponds to the square in the field that the cow poops on.

Yes, I know that was basically a run on sentence that ends in a preposition. Sometimes these things are unavoidable.
